

Job opening: Outreach specialist

Charm City Care Connection (CCCC) works to connect residents of marginalized communities in Baltimore to high-quality healthcare services and seek to address any obstacles that might threaten that connection. We do this by building long-term partnerships between volunteers and community residents, empowering both parties to learn from each other as they work to promote health and well-being within Baltimore's fragmented healthcare system. Since our founding in 2010, CCCC has worked within a harm reduction framework by meeting people where they're at; in the past year, we have increased our harm reduction services to include a syringe services program, naloxone distribution, and a drop-in center for people who use drugs.

CCCC encourages a collaborative environment where staff are expected to be proactive in their work and encouraged to actively participate in the improvement of service delivery and the development of programs.
